Gladys Hughlett

Gladys Hughlett, sister to Earl, died in 1994. She was born in 1909 and was eight years younger than her brother. Like her father Warren Skinner and brother Earl, she suffered from dementia towards the end of her life. She tested positive for Alzheimer's in posthumous testing. Gladys reminded me of her mother May Skinner - quiet, soft-spoken, and somewhat conservative and strict in manner. Her brother Earl was made from a different cloth.

Gladys S. Hughlett, lived in Lancaster

Gladys S. Hughlett, 84, of 300 Willow Valley Lakes Drive, died Friday morning at home after a long illness.

She was the wife of William C. Hughlett.

Born in Philadelphia, she was a daughter of the late Warren and May Leap Skinner.

She was a member of Calvary Church of Lancaster.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a son, Richard William of Clarksboro, N.J.; a daughter, Constance H. Silver of Bryn Mawr; three grandchildren; and a brother, Earl Skinner of New Jersey.

HUGHLETT - Entered into rest in Willow St., Pa. on January 14, 1994, GLADYS S. HUGHLETT, wife of William C. Hughlett of 300 Willow Valley Lakes Dr., in her 85th year. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from the Ivan B. Dewald Funeral Home, 227 W. 4th St., Quarryville on Tuesday, at 10 a.m. with Chaplain Rev. George Linehart officiating. Interment in Willow Street Mennonite Cemetery, Willow St., Pa. Friends may call at the Dewald Funeral Home, Tuesday morning from 9:30 until 10 a.m. Please omit flowers. Should friends desire memorials in her memory may be sent to Hospice of Lancaster Co., 120 W. Airport Rd., P.O. Box 5179, Lancaster, Pa. 17606-5179.

Dick Hughlett

Dick Hughlett is the son of Earl's sister Gladys Hughlett. Dick has had a life-long interest in boating. Dick Hughlett sells marine supplies and has assisted in running speedboat races on the Delaware River. Dick is a close friend of my parents and resides in Clarksboro, NJ. He is fixing up a home on the water in Maryland for retirement, as well as a winter home at Wilmington, DE.

Dick interest in boating began at an early age. He went to the Jersey shore with his parents one year at age twelve and was jealous of the kids across the street who had the boat and home on the water. He told his parents he wanted a boat, but was told he had to wait. At age 16, he purchased his first boat, a kit that arrived in the mail.

CHARLES' OBITUARY

Charles M. Ungerbuehler, Jr. left his family and friends on Wednesday, March 27, 2019.

He was born on October 5, 1937 in Wilmington, Delaware to Evelyn Sturgis and Charles Marsden Ungerbuehler, Sr.

Chuck graduated from William Penn High School in 1955, studied naval architecture and applied his studies in assisting his father in their boat building business.

He entered the Coast Guard in 1958, was stationed in New York and completed his service on an ice breaker. He was honorably discharged.

Chuck joined the DuPont Company, Engineering Department, where he was an industrial model builder.

He retired after thirty years service as supervisor of the model shop. Immediately upon retirement, he joined Brice Builders where he (for years) was instrumental in the building of prestigious homes at the beach.

Following his retirement from Brice Builders, he joined the Lewes Historical Society where he was loved and respected in his work of restoration and maintenance.

Chuck was a carver of waterfowl and won First Place in Ward Brothers competition, in his class as well as First Place in New York state where his bird was also exhibited.

For years, he was a wedding photographer in Wilmington; and was also awarded for his naturephotography by the Wilmington Camera Club and the DuPont Camera Club.

He is survived by his two sons, Trent Ungerbuehler and Shane Meeds Brice; two daughters, Carla and Patricia; and his wife of forty-four years, Maxine McWhorter Ungerbuehler who adored him.

For those who would like to honor Chuck, we suggest that a contribution be made to the Humane Society, Midway, Lewes/Rehoboth.
